

Existing File Example

Using the `file_exists_callback` in the `OptArgs` dictionary and passing this dictionary to the `MultiFormat` constructor (directly or using the `create_mf` function) allows us to handle an exiting file in any way we want. The default behaviour if no callback is provided is to refuse to overwrite existing files.